SERVICES INCLUDE: One year subscription to the "Construction Bulletin". The "Bulletin" is a compilation of: Upcoming projects for bid, updated plan holder's lists and low bid results. We send out the Bulletin, by email, every Friday. During the week, we periodically send emails out to members, with newly updated information, to keep them informed of any pertinent changes. There is also advertising within the publication and available to our members, at a very reasonable cost. Other services include: Plan room service, where in blueprints and specifications for upcoming projects are "checked out" to members, so they can do their "take-off" back at their own office. They may also choose to use one of our professional drafting tables, located in our office. Blueprint copier services (at a very affordable price) are available. Similar to an "online plan room", most drawings/specs are available electronically and can be provided to members, for no additional cost.
